

TRADITIONAL RUN SHEET - WEDDINGS PAGE

When planning your Wedding Day, it is important to have an idea of what will be happening and when. This will give the band an opportunity to plan their set and break times. The following is an “example” of a run sheet (this is a guide only).
Your venue co-ordinator will assist you with times and final details.

Wedding of Mr and Mrs J Citizen	Time
Guests arrive at the reception venue	Eg: 4.30pm
Bride and Groom greet their guests / continue with photos
Pre-dinner drinks
Guests are seated, emcee greets everyone and runs through housekeeping, bridal party enters and dinner commences Band starts Set One (1 hour)
All toasts and speeches are made Band concludes Set One - Break
The best man reads messages, emails
The bride and groom cut the cake Dessert, tea and coffee served Band resumes Set Two (1 hour)
Bride and Groom have their first dance, followed by attendants, family and guests
Dancing begins and / or Bride and Groom mingle with guests Band concludes during this time Set Two - Break
Bride throws her bouquet, groom tosses the garter Band resumes Set Three (1 hour)
Bride and Groom leave reception for hotel or after party venue Band concludes Set Three
Parents thank guests and farewell
Wedding Concludes	